

Dear friend,

You are invited into the intimate be-holding of the transfiguration of spiritual friendship.

On April 29, 2025, we will be holding a ritual of remembrance at 6pm ET over zoom, in virtual space. Our desire is to gather in sacred space together and ritually behold the invitation of Sabra Saperstein into the Church of the Intimate Web.

You are invited to join us because who we are and who we are becoming could not, would not, happen without you. Together, we are collaborating on an art project that feels deeply mysterious and meaningful to us. You feel to be intimately weaved into this field of spiritual friendship. If you feel called to witness and us in your conscious loving presence during our ritual of (re)membering, please say “yes” and we will be honoured to invite you into ceremony with us.

With love,
Sabra, Cheryl, Daniel & Dechen
On behalf of the Church of the Intimate Web

Notes:

- Eros, Space and Source are the three protocols of the Imaginal Theology of the Church of the Intimate Web
- The word “score” gestures to lyrical perception and the Fluxus art movement, where notations/ instructions are written as compositions guiding the performance of bodies of space. This ritual score is poetically sourced to invite emergent and improvisational interpretation.
- The word “bondage” alludes to re-ligio — to “re-bind back to God” — the invocation of the binding energy that consciously entangles us into our sacred obligation to Life.
